Under Irish legislation covering anti-money laundering and the taxation of savings the Company and the Administrator are required to obtain documentation in order to verify the identity, permanent address and tax residency status of all new clients.

Should documents be provided in a language other than English, an English translation will be required.

Please note that the application may not be accepted and redemption proceeds will not be processed until the Administrator is in receipt of the required anti-money laundering documentation and the original Application Form together with the original banking details for the settlement of the redemption proceeds. Additional confirmation of identity, authority of the applicant and/or further information on the source of funds may be required in certain circumstances. Until further notice, please contact the Transfer Agent for complete details of the documentation requirements for each applicant.

In the event that you are identified as a PEP as a result of the screening process, you may be required to provide additional information and/or documentation to the Company or the Administrator. Such processing, which may reveal your political opinions or any trade union memberships, is considered lawful on the grounds of substantial public interest permitted under GDPR.

The Company, the Administrator and their service providers may collect special categories of personal data in order to perform the activities and to conduct the screening programmes specified in the prior paragraph. Copies of these clauses may be sought from the Administrator at lazardta@statestreet.com.

Section 6. Retention of your Personal Data

The Company and the Administrator will retain Personal Data for as long as necessary or permitted in light of the purpose(s) for which it was obtained. The criteria used to determine the retention periods include:

- the length of the Company’s relationship with you and other applicants (if any);

Section 7. Your Data Protection Rights

You have a number of rights in relation to Personal Data, which are set out in the table below. In particular these rights include the right to object to processing of your Personal Data where that processing is carried out for the Company’s legitimate interests. Note that in certain circumstances these rights might not be absolute.

Right	Further Information
Right of Access	You have the right to request a copy of the Personal Data held by the Company about you and to access the information which the Company holds about you. The Company may charge you for making such an access request where it feels your request is unjustified or excessive.
Right to Object	You have a right to object at any time to the processing of your Personal Data where the Company processes your Personal Data on the legal basis of pursuing the Company’s legitimate interests.
Right to Rectification	You have the right to have any inaccurate Personal Data which the Company holds about you updated or corrected.
Right to Erasure	In certain circumstances, you may also have your personal information deleted, for example if you exercise your right to object (see above) and the Company does not have an overriding reason to process your Personal Data or if the Company no longer requires your Personal Data for the purposes as set out in this notice.
Right to Restriction of Processing	You have the right to ask the Company to restrict processing your Personal Data in certain cases, including if you believe that the Personal Data the Company holds about you is inaccurate or the Company’s use of your information is unlawful. If you validly exercise this right, the Company will store your Personal Data and will not carry out any other processing until the issue is resolved.
Right to Data Portability	You may request the Company to provide you with your Personal Data that you have given the Company in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format and you may request the Company to transmit your Personal Data directly to another data controller where this is technically feasible. This right only arises where: (1) the Company processes your Personal Data with your consent or where it is necessary to perform the Company’s contract with you; and (2) the processing is carried out by automated means.

Where the Company or the Administrator requires your Personal Data to comply with anti-money laundering or other relevant legal requirements, failure to provide this information may prevent the application for initial subscription of shares and/or any future dealing of shares in the Company.
